Team Leader for CPD Design and Research

Job Description and General Notes

1. Overview

The Professional Development Service for Teachers (PDST) is a cross-sectoral support service under the remit of the Teacher Education Section (TES) of the Department of Education and Skills (DES) which offers professional development support to primary and post-primary teachers and school leaders. The work of the PDST contributes to school improvement by providing high quality Continuing Professional Development (CPD) on curricular and educational issues, fostering reflective practice and ongoing development among teachers and school leaders.

Amongst the priorities for the Department of Education and Skills for the coming years are:

- Literacy including the Primary Languages Curriculum
- Numeracy
- Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM)
- Embedding Digital Technologies in Teaching and Learning as per the DES Digital Strategy for Schools
- School Self-Evaluation (SSE)
- Health and Wellbeing
- School Leadership
- Post-Primary Subjects and Programmes

The PDST currently has a full-time secondment opportunity for the position of Team Leader (CPD Design and Research).

The Team Leader, will report directly to the PDST Deputy Director for CPD Design and Research and will be a member of the management team of the PDST. S/he will be contracted on a secondment basis to Dublin West Education Centre.

The Team Leader will assist and support the Deputy Director for Research and Design in designing and developing all continuous professional development programmes for primary and post primary teachers, across all areas of priority, including related resources. Priorities for 2019 2020 will include the design of CPD and related materials for the revised curriculum for Primary Languages, STEM, Digital Technologies and the reform of Senior Cycle subjects.

The closing date for applications is Thursday March 28th at 3pm
2. Job Description

The Team Leader (CPD Design) will have responsibility for:

- Assisting and supporting the Deputy Director for CPD Design and Research in leading and managing the design of CPD material
- Working directly with other team leaders and advisors in designing, managing and monitoring the design of CPD material
- Ensuring that all CPD designs are underpinned by a conceptual framework for CPD informed by relevant research on effective CPD
- Project managing a number of CPD designs simultaneously within defined standards and deadlines
- Ensuring the meaningful integration of core components as appropriate such as Digital Technologies, School Self-Evaluation, Inclusion and Assessment, into all CPD Design material
- Supporting team leaders in co-ordinating interagency design committee meetings and reporting on actions to be taken
- Remaining abreast of research regarding leading CPD practice towards informing CPD provision for all primary and post primary teachers
- Engaging in collaboration arrangements with relevant bodies including the NCCA, initial teacher education providers, other DES support services, Centre for School Leadership (CSL) Centres, Department Inspectorate and other relevant professional bodies with regard to the design of CPD material

Flexibility will be required from advisors to work in a number of areas. Consequently the duties to be undertaken by the advisors will vary in accordance with emerging needs and priorities.

3. Range of Knowledge, Experience and Skills required

The ideal candidate will possess a range of competencies and skills to support the role, in particular:

- Excellent project design, management and project delivery skills
- Excellent writing skills in keeping with PDST writing and language conventions along with an excellent ability to examine all CPD material for detail, consistency and expected standards
- Experience in innovative and creative CPD designs attached to the range of PDST priority areas
- Experience in the design of CPD for a range of CPD models – national seminars, workshops, teacher professional communities, and online provision
- The ability to lead and mobilise teams of people according to prioritised tasks including the ability to pro-actively organise and coordinate the work of others
• Knowledge and understanding of the role of research in CPD design, in informing strategic direction and in measuring the impact of CPD provision
• An enterprising approach to tasks and the capability to undertake the innovative and challenging elements of the work.
• A range of classroom teaching experience, thorough knowledge of national curricula and the operation of schools and relevant legislation
• In-depth knowledge of current and emerging education issues at primary and post-primary level
• Knowledge and experience of effective teacher education, school leadership, school self-evaluation and school improvement strategies
• Understanding of the role of digital technologies in the design and delivery of CPD and teaching, learning and assessment
• Experience in the facilitation of teacher professional development including evidence of a capacity to mobilise and support teacher reflection, enquiry and school-based research
• Excellent interpersonal skills
• A strong work ethic
• Experience of teaching though Irish, fluency in the language and willingness to work through the language of Irish will be an advantage for this but is not essential

Flexibility is a key feature of the role in order to meet the needs of the organisation, and so will include a willingness to engage in travel and/or evening work as may be reasonable and necessary for the proper performance of duties subject to the limits set down in the Organisation of Working Time Act 1997
