Supporting Post-Primary Schools & Teachers

Our Mission

The aim of the Professional Development Service for Teachers (PDST) is to provide high quality professional development and support that empowers teachers and schools to provide the best possible education for all pupils/students. Our mission is to support teachers as reflective practitioners by promoting teacher learning, collaboration and evidence-based practice. PDST operates under the remit of Teacher Education Section (TES) and is hosted by Dublin West Education Centre (DWEC).

What Support is Available?

PDST collaborates with the Education Centre network to provide continuing professional development (CPD) to post primary teachers through various models and in a range of settings depending on the needs of schools and teachers. PDST provides:

- subject-specific
- programme-specific including JCSP, TY, LCA & LCVP
- national seminars in priority areas, such as school self-evaluation, literacy and numeracy
- projects focused on key educational themes
- teacher professional networks (TPNs) support
- online learning and support
- leadership programmes
- in-school support in a range of areas to support learning and teaching

In-school support for DEIS planning

School Based Support at individual school or cluster based level can be accessed through <http://www.pdst.ie/postprimary>

How is Support Organised?

PDST advisors, associates and local facilitators, supported by Education Centre bases, respond to the professional development needs of teachers by working flexibly within and across the following teams:

Team	Education Centre Base	Team Leader
1. Gaeilge	PDST Office, Park West (01) 4358587	Carmel Nic Eoin
2. Numeracy	Drumcondra Ed. Centre (01) 8576427	Mia Treacy

General Support

The Professional Development Service for Teachers (PDST) provides continuing support in a wide range of curricular areas, e.g. subject and programmes. We also respond to requests to work with the teaching staff in a school on a wide variety of teaching and learning areas.

In-School CPD & Support

PDST provides in-school programme and subject-specific support as well as whole-staff workshops suitable for staff development days and 'Croke Park'

hours in the following areas:

- Assessment for Learning
- Positive Behaviour Management
- Co-operative Learning
- Active Learning
- Differentiation of Learning & Teaching
- Motivation
- Planning
- Online tools
- Multi media as a Teaching tool
- Programme support—JCSP, TY, LCVP, LCA

In-School Support for DEIS Planning

School Based Support at individual school or cluster based level can be accessed through <http://www.pdst.ie/postprimary>

Applying for CPD Events

Notification of CPD events relating to subject-specific support, programme-specific support and national seminars is issued to schools and teachers through the education centre network. In addition, many programme and subject specific events use an online application system which can be accessed at www.pdst.ie.
